HIPAA PATIENT CONSENT FORM

Our Notice of Privacy Practices provides information about how we may use and disclose protected health information about you. The Notice contains a Patient Rights section describing your rights under the law. You have the right to review our Notice before signing this Consent. The terms of our Notice may change. If we change our Notice, you may obtain a revised copy by contacting our office.
You have the right to request that we restrict how protected health information about you is used or disclosed for treatment, payment, or health care operations. We are not required to agree to this restriction, but if we do, we shall honor that agreement.
By signing this form, you consent to our use and disclosure of protected health information about you for treatment, payment and health care operations. You have the right to revoke this Consent, in writing, signed by you. However, such a revocation shall not affect any disclosures we have already made in reliance on your prior Consent. The Practice provides this form to comply with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA).

The patient understands that: Protected health information may be disclosed or used for treatment, payment, or health care operations. The Practice has a Notice of Privacy Practices and that the patient has the opportunity to review this Notice.
The Practice reserves the right to change the Notice of Privacy Practices. The patient has the right to restrict the uses of their information but the Practice does not have to agree to those restrictions. The patient may revoke this Consent in writing at any time and all future disclosures will then cease. The Practice may condition receipt of treatment upon the execution of this Consent.

Signature is required yearly. Please sign next available line.

AUTHORIZATION FOR MARKETING PURPOSES

HIPAA applies to "PHI" (Protected Health Information). This is information that identifies who the health-related information belongs to, i.e. names, email addresses, phone numbers, medical record numbers, photos, driver's license numbers, etc. If you have something that can identify a user together with health information of any kind (from an appointment, to a list of prescriptions, to test results, to a list of doctors) you have PHI that needs to be protected under HIPAA guidelines.
In an effort to update our privacy policies consistent with the new HIPAA guidelines for marketing purposes, we are requesting that all of our patients resubmit their request to receive emails from our practice regarding news, events, products, services and other marketing materials. Please read below the updated regulations for obtaining authorizations for marketing purposes.
I give permission to Aesthetics Center of Louisville and Louisville Dermatology Clinic to send emails for marketing purposes. I understand that my signature below permits this disclosure with no such expiration date. I understand by signing I am agreeing to allow Aesthetics Center of Louisville and Louisville Dermatology Clinic access to PHI including my name, email address and potentially mailing address for the purpose of marketing the practice and services offered. I understand that I have the right to revoke this authorization, at any time, by unsubscribing from the email list. This correspondence may lead to remuneration for the practice. We respect your privacy and do not sell your information to third parties. Although we do not anticipate additional disclosures, due to the nature of the email transmissions, by releasing your information, other disclosures may occur and that PHI may no longer be protected by the Privacy Rule. In terms of shared medical information, treatment may not be conditioned on receipt of the authorization, or under the circumstances where it can be conditioned such as for research purposes.
Our Notice of Privacy Practices provides information about how we may use and disclose protected health information about you. The Notice contains a Patient Rights section describing your rights under the law. You have the right to review our Notice before signing this Consent. The terms of our Notice may change. If we change our Notice, you may obtain a revised copy by contacting our office.
You have the right to request that we restrict how protected health information about you is used or disclosed for treatment, payment, or health care operations. We are not required to agree to this restriction, but if we do, we shall honor that agreement.
By signing this form, you consent to our use and disclosure of protected health information about you for treatment, payment and health care operations. You have the right to revoke this Consent, in writing, signed by you. However, such a revocation shall not affect any disclosures we have already made in reliance on your prior Consent. The Practice provides this form to comply with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA).

Missed Appointment Policy

We're glad you have chosen us to provide your medical care, but if you miss your appointments, you inconvenience not only the staff but those individuals who need access to medical care in a timely manner. We want to remind you of our office policies regarding missed appointments.

A missed appointment is when you fail to show up for an appointment without a phone call, or cancel without at least 24-hour notice.

A doctor/patient relationship is built on mutual trust and respect. As such, we strive to be on time for your scheduled appointments, and ask that you give us the courtesy of a call when you are unable to keep your appointment. Below, our missed appointment policies are outlined.

Let's work together to provide you with the best possible care you deserve.

Routine Office Visits

1. 1st Missed Appointment: You may reschedule your appointment.
   You may be charged a missed appointment fee of $25.
2. 2nd missed Appointment: You may reschedule your appointment.
   You may be charged a missed appointment fee of $25.
3. 3rd Missed Appointment: You will be charged a missed appointment fee of $25.
   This may result in a discharge from the practice.

Office Procedure Appointments

1. 1st Missed Appointment: You may reschedule your appointment.
   You will be charged a missed appointment fee of $150.
2. 2nd missed Appointment: You may reschedule your appointment.
   You will be charged a missed appointment fee of $150.
3. 3rd Missed Appointment: This may result in a discharge from the practice.
   You will be charged a missed appointment fee of $150.

Authorization / Assignment / Financial Responsibility

I understand that I am financially responsible for all charges. There are some procedures that require a deposit prior to the treatment date or are cosmetic procedures not billable through insurance. All procedures needing a deposit will be discussed with patient prior to scheduling. I understand that all sales and purchases are final.

My Signature below indicates that I have read and am in agreement with all above statements.
